Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and application state law.

The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for years ended June 30, 2018 and June 30, 2017.

The Organization files its forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the office of the Secretary of State for the State of Tennessee. The Organization is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2013.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

United Way of Williamson County fights for the health, education and financial stability of every person in our community. To do this, we identify and fund solutions that advance health, accelerate education and expand financial stability.

impact in Williamson County, United Way facilitates the Citizens Review Panels where community volunteers conduct reviews of health and human service agencies requesting funding. Currently 44 programs serving Williamson County receive $1.8 million in funding.

Donor Designations to Other Non-Profit Agencies or United Ways

Throughout the annual United Way campaign, donors may choose to directly designate a portion of their gifts to a specific agency or United Way in another community. Eligibility for designations requires that agencies are tax exempt under IRS code 501(C)(3), and have a health and human service focus. In 2017, donor designated gifts resulted in $1.3 million additional funds for these agencies and United Ways.

Raise Your Hand (RYH)

Raise Your Hand (RYH) is a collaborative project between United Way of Williamson County (UWWC), Franklin Special School District (FSSD) and Williamson County School District (WCS) that offers tutoring to first, second, third and fourth grade students scoring in the bottom 40% in reading and math.

Tutoring, snacks, background checks, and transportation are all provided through grant funding. In Williamson County, transportation is a barrier for the majority of students. So providing that service is one of the most important aspects to our after- school tutoring program.

UWWC recruits volunteers to help in the classroom after school and provides training for teachers and volunteers. For the 2017-2018 school year, 116 RYH volunteers provided tutoring for 401 students with school testing results showing 93% of students improved in reading and 91% of students improved in math.

Summer of 2018, RYH partnered with FSSD and WCS Districts to provide funding for 1 library in each district to be open 4 hours per week for six weeks. This partnership targeted reduction of the 'summer slide'.

United Way continues to look for new collaborations to bring enhancements to the program.

United Way of Williamson County Free Tax Prep (VITA)

United Way of Williamson County Free Tax Prep (VITA) in partnership with the IRS is a national program staffed by local IRS-certified volunteers to provide free preparation and electronic filing of income tax returns to households that earned $66,000 or less in 2017, (this level changes each year). Volunteers are also able to educate taxpayers about tax credits for which they may qualify.

For the 2018 tax season, volunteers served 2,403 hours at 4 traditional sites and 4 mobile sites in Williamson County, and helped prepare more than 1,472 tax returns which returned over $1.1 million in total refunds to tax filers.

Williamson County Anti-Drug Coalition (WCADC)

WCADC is working to make parents aware of substance abuse among youth, ages 12-18. WCADC works with community partners such as the local governments, educators, court systems, local agencies, health providers, citizen activists, and volunteers to implement effective strategies that provide awareness, inform residents and prevent substance abuse.

WCADC initiated Drug Take Back Days in cooperation with local law enforcement. These events are scheduled twice each year. Permanent drop boxes are available year round at the Nolensville Police Department, Fairview Police Department and Williamson County Sheriff's office.

WCADC works in the school system to promote Prom Promise, which works with high school audiovisual classes to produce PSA videos about the dangers of drug abuse.

WCADC continues to host lunch-n-learn events during which home lock boxes for prescription drugs are distributed. These boxes are small and can be bolted down or placed in any secure area. This prevention is good for all families. Over 50% of those abusing prescription medication report getting it from a friend or family's medicine cabinet. The lock boxes help reduce the amount of theft and keeps medicine out of the hands of children, resulting in less accidental poisonings.

United Way's Volunteer Center

Volunteer Williamson County was established to connect volunteers with meaningful and fulfilling community projects. In addition to coordinating the annual Days of Caring for employees of local corporate partners and a county-wide Day of Action, Volunteer Williamson County hosts college students from across the country for Alternative Spring Break. These students pay for their own transportation plus pay a fee to participate and spend the week working on community projects here in Williamson County. The Volunteer Center also coordinates the following: the Governor's Volunteer Stars Award for Williamson County; the Patricia Hart Society's (women's initiative) annual events (Stuff the Bus, Thanksgiving food drive and annual fundraising event in February); the community gardens; and individual volunteer projects year round. A collaboration with Williamson County School District provides volunteering opportunities for students obtaining the TnAchieves scholarship. During the year, volunteers contributed more than 45,000 hours of service to the community.
